As part of its efforts to foster diversity in the bankruptcy bench and bar, the Judicial Conference of the United States Committee on the Administration of the Bankruptcy Court System is presenting this one-of-a-kind program, which will be broadcast live to sixteen states and nineteen cities around the country. Interested lawyers and law students will participate in roundtable discussions with local federal bankruptcy, magistrate, district, and appellate judges about pathways to the federal bench for candidates with diverse backgrounds.

More information will be provided as the date approaches. Registration may be limited due to space constraints. For questions, please contact Jessica Garibay at (213) 894-3126.
